Joseph's Betrayal and map of pre exodus period

The Ten Plagues

Question

Garden of Eden...where is it? It was guarded from access to the Tree of Life until the flood then destroyed.

Why the position and purpose of the chapter concerning Judah and Tamar? The event took place between the sale of Joseph and his promotion to leadership in Egypt. The chapter reveals the lineage of Judah which was ultimately that of David (see Ruth 4:18) and then Jesus (Matthew 1:3)

Additional thoughts...

God dealing with the world...then a family...then a nation... Genesis 1-11, Genesis 12-50, then Exodus 1-> (see Genesis 46:3)

The recognition by even the Egyptians surrounding Pharaoh that this was the finger of God. Exodus 8:10-13, 19; 10:7

The significance of the initial dream of Joseph. Genesis 37:9, 42:6-9; 50:8; Revelation 12:1

Judah as "type" of a substitute compared to the "antitype" in the person of Jesus. Genesis 44:33 (see Genesis 22:7-8, 13-14)

(Typology in Christian theology and Biblical exegesis is a doctrine or theory concerning the relationship of the Old Testament to the New Testament. In the fullest version of the theory of typology, the whole purpose of the Old Testament is viewed as merely the provision of types for Christ, the antitype or fulfillment.)

What is in the Old Testament concealed is in the New Testament revealed.

Genesis Quiz

What are the four major events of Genesis 1-11?

Who are the four major characters of Genesis 12-50?

What is the transition of these two sections?

Living in a Fallen World and under a Secular Government

Pray for our rulers... 1 Timothy 2 1I urge you, first of all, to pray for all people. Ask God to help them; intercede on their behalf, and give thanks for them. 2Pray this way for kings and all who are in authority so that we can live peaceful and quiet lives marked by godliness and dignity.

Submit to governing authorities... Romans 13 1everyone must submit to governing authorities. For all authority comes from God, and those in positions of authority have been placed there by God. 2So anyone who rebels against authority is rebelling against what God has instituted, and they will be punished. 3For the authorities do not strike fear in people who are doing right, but in those who are doing wrong. Would you like to live without fear of the authorities? Do what is right, and they will honor you. 4The authorities are God’s servants, sent for your good. But if you are doing wrong, of course you should be afraid, for they have the power to punish you. They are God’s servants, sent for the very purpose of punishing those who do what is wrong. 5So you must submit to them, not only to avoid punishment, but also to keep a clear conscience.

Pay your taxes... Romans 13 6Pay your taxes, too, for these same reasons. For government workers need to be paid. They are serving God in what they do. 7Give to everyone what you owe them: Pay your taxes and government fees to those who collect them, and give respect and honor to those who are in authority.

Live honorable lives... 1 Peter 2 11Dear friends, I warn you as “temporary residents and foreigners” to keep away from worldly desires that wage war against your very souls. 12Be careful to live properly among your unbelieving neighbors. Then even if they accuse you of doing wrong, they will see your honorable behavior, and they will give honor to God when he judges the world. 13For the Lord’s sake, respect all human authority—whether the king as head of state, 14or the officials he has appointed. For the king has sent them to punish those who do wrong and to honor those who do right. 15It is God’s will that your honorable lives should silence those ignorant people who make foolish accusations against you. 16For you are free, yet you are God’s slaves, so don’t use your freedom as an excuse to do evil. 17Respect everyone, and love your Christian brothers and sisters. Fear God, and respect the king.

Mind your own business... 1 Thessalonians 4 11Make it your goal to live a quiet life, minding your own business and working with your hands, just as we instructed you before. 12Then people who are not Christians will respect the way you live, and you will not need to depend on others.

Work for the prosperity of your city... Jeremiah 29 7And work for the peace and prosperity of the city where I sent you into exile. Pray to the Lord for it, for its welfare will determine your welfare.”

Be prepared to testify to our hope... 1 Peter 3 15Instead, you must worship Christ as Lord of your life. And if someone asks about your Christian hope, always be ready to explain it. 16But do this in a gentle and respectful way. Keep your conscience clear. Then if people speak against you, they will be ashamed when they see what a good life you live because you belong to Christ. 17Remember, it is better to suffer for doing good, if that is what God wants, than to suffer for doing wrong!

Give God what belongs to God... Luke 20 25“Well then,” he said, “give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God.”

Do not be surprised if you suffer for doing right... 1 Peter 4 12Dear friends, don’t be surprised at the fiery trials you are going through, as if something strange were happening to you. 13Instead, be very glad—for these trials make you partners with Christ in his suffering, so that you will have the wonderful joy of seeing his glory when it is revealed to all the world. 14So be happy when you are insulted for being a Christian, for then the glorious Spirit of God rests upon you. 15If you suffer, however, it must not be for murder, stealing, making trouble, or prying into other people’s affairs. 16But it is no shame to suffer for being a Christian. Praise God for the privilege of being called by his name! 17For the time has come for judgment, and it must begin with God’s household. And if judgment begins with us, what terrible fate awaits those who have never obeyed God’s Good News? 18And also, “If the righteous are barely saved, what will happen to godless sinners? 19So if you are suffering in a manner that pleases God, keep on doing what is right, and trust your lives to the God who created you, for he will never fail you.

Renew your mind... Romans 12 1And so, dear brothers and sisters, I plead with you to give your bodies to God because of all he has done for you. Let them be a living and holy sacrifice—the kind he will find acceptable. This is truly the way to worship him. 2Don’t copy the behavior and customs of this world, but let God transform you into a new person by changing the way you think. Then you will learn to know God’s will for you, which is good and pleasing and perfect.
