Praise God for the privilege of being called by his name! 17For the time has come for judgment, and it must begin with God's household. And if judgment begins with us, what terrible fate awaits those who have never obeyed God's Good News? 18And also, "If the righteous are barely saved, what will happen to godless sinners?" 19So if you are suffering in a manner that pleases God, keep on doing what is right, and trust your lives to the God who created you, for he will never fail you.

How can I live it?

Questions

Is God finished with Israel? Up to now in our reading has he given up on them? We will make our decision on “is he finished with Israel” based on reading of the Word of God. These are important passages and concepts... what is the nature of God, what is the nature of man, why did God enter into Covenant or this holy contract with Israel in the first place, what is that Covenant or contract?

Why do we daily read God’s Word?

“...you can have all the right notions in your head without ever tasting in your heart the realities to which they refer; and a simple Bible reader and sermon hearer who is full of the Holy Spirit will develop a far deeper acquaintance with his God and Savior than a more learned scholar who is content with being theologically correct. The reason is that the former will deal with God regarding the practical application of truth to his life, whereas the latter will not.”

— J.I. Packer (Knowing God p. 39)

Quote from Dietrich Bonhoeffer Life Together pp. 54-55 We must learn to know the Scriptures again, as the Reformers and our fathers knew them. We must not grudge the time and the work that it takes...But one who will not learn to handle the Bible for himself is not an evangelical Christian.

SCRIPTURE BEFORE PHONE

The Habit at a Glance:

Refusing to check the phone until after reading a passage of Scripture is a way of replacing the question “What do I need to do today?” with a better one, “Who am I and who am I becoming?” We have no stable identity outside of Jesus. Daily immersion in the Scriptures resists the anxiety of emails, the anger of news, and the envy of social media. Instead it forms us daily in our true identity as children of the King, dearly loved.

WE BECOME WHAT OR WHO WE REFLECT, WHICH IS TO SAY WE BECOME WHAT WE PAY ATTENTION TO

An Excerpt From The Common Rule:

I often turn to work and career in the search for my identity. I hope that by achieving success I will finally become someone who is approved of. This means—as an identity reflector—I have to look at other people’s faces, and my identity is tacked to whether they look happy with me and my work or not.

The habit of checking work emails first thing every morning encouraged this misguided search for identity because it started my day with the questions: What do I need to do to make someone else happy with me? How can I justify my existence in the world today?

What are the seven most important books of the Bible? Genesis, Exodus, John, Acts, Romans, Ephesians, Revelation

Reading: Romans 1-16

Daily and Chapter Summaries

Look at Paul's sermons, his resistance, his miracles, his traveling route

Friday: November 12th

Romans 1-3

- 1 a letter from Paul about Jesus Christ and the good news of the Gospel, the faith of the Roman church is known Paul desires to travel to Rome, the sinful thought and actions of those who suppress the truth
- 2 all are really in the same boat when it comes to sin, God will punish both Gentiles and Jews, Paul questions the actions of the Jews who think highly of themselves, identity of the true Jew
- 3 God's faithfulness to the sinners and the Jews, everyone has sin , we are made right before God by faith in Jesus, Jesus sacrificed for us, we are made right with God through faith

Saturday: November 13th

Romans 4-5

- 4 God accepted Abraham by faith before he did anything right before God, law brings punishment, salvation comes as a free gift, Abraham did not waver in unbelief but grew strong in faith, we are saved in the very same way
- 5 we were alienated from God, Adam vs. Jesus, death vs. forgiveness, death rules vs. triumphant over sin, many sinner vs. many made right, reign of sin vs. reign of righteousness

Sunday: November 14th

Selah

Monday: November 15th

Romans 6-8

- 6 we should not keep on sinning now that are united with Christ, Jesus defeated death so sin should not keep on sin because we are not mastered by it
- 7 the control of the law or our old nature, the struggle of sin for the believer, God delivers us from sin
- 8 control by the Holy Spirit, a Christian has the Holy Spirit, the Spirit gives life, heirs of Christ Jesus both blessing and suffering, even though we have God's Spirit we do not everything God will give us, God has given us everything we need, nothing can separate us from the love of God

Tuesday: November 16th

Romans 9-11

- 9 Paul grieves over the Jews who have not believed, not all children of Abraham are children of the promise, children of God are children by God's mercy based on God's choice, God also shows mercy to the Gentiles
- 10 the Jews are zealous but not according to God's Word, salvation comes by calling on the name of the Lord by faith

11 has God rejected His people the Jews? Jews are being saved by God’s favor, Gentiles now are being saved but the Jews will began to come in again once the full number of the Gentiles has come in, but God’s promises can not be nullified

Wednesday: November 17th

Romans 12-16

12 sacrificed to God, using our gifts to function in the body of Christ, really love each other

13 obey the government, keep a clear conscience, love others, Jesus is returning soon so do what is right

14 patience with each other over non essentials, we must all give an account to God, we should not make others stumble, just love each other, give preference to others
